the mixed results of the ecumenical dialogue since the second vatican council have made it clear that the primacy of the bishop of rome remains the single most serious obstacle on the path of ecumenism in his landmark 1995 encyclical ut unum sint pope john paul ii reiterated the constant teaching that the catholic church has preserved the ministry of the successor of the apostle peter the bishop of rome he also invited leaders and theologians of other christian communities to engage in a patient and fraternal dialogue on this subject to find a way of exercising the primacy which while in no way renouncing what is essential to its mission is nonetheless open to a new situation this book explores in depth the discussion of papal primacy in the catholic orthodox catholic lutheran and catholic anglican dialogues along with an appendix on the concept of sister churches each chapter describes how the primacy is viewed in the respective churches or ecclesial communities then it analyzes the documents of the official ecumenical dialogue and realistically evaluates the results achieved thus far women and migration in contemporary italian cinema screening hospitality puts gender at the centre of cinematic representations of contemporary transnational italian identities it offers an intersectional feminist analysis of the ways in which transnational migration has been represented understood and constructed in the contemporary cinema of italy drawing on jacques derrida s notion of hospitality and in dialogue with postcolonial and decolonial theory queer studies and feminist critiques the six chapters of the book focus on a series of exemplary fiction films from the last twenty years which both reflect and shape the nation s responses to the growing presence of transnational migrants in italian society the book shows how questions of gender sexual difference and reproductivity have been central to italian filmmakers approaches to stories of mobility and displacement gender is also enmeshed in the rhetoric and poetic of hospitality that filmmakers propose as a critical framework to condemn italian border policies and politics women and migration in contemporary italian cinema screening hospitality traces an arc that moves from the embrace of a humanitarian rhetoric of infinite hospitality toward migrants apparent in films produced in the early 2000s to a more fluid understanding of Italian identities from a transnational perspective
